

New recruitment to Oy Lautex AB

Antti Vimpari, M.Sc.(Eng.), MBA, has been appointed as Sales Director and Vice CEO of Oy Lautex AB starting on June 1, 2010.

Present CEO Jouko Mäenpää will retire on January 1, 2011 and Antti Vimpari will replace him as CEO the same day.

Antti Vimpari has broad experience from international business administration, organization development, marketing and project management. His most recent position was as Operations Director at Quattrogemini Oy. Before that Antti has worked as CEO of Kenno Tech Oy and within ABB and NCC, among other positions.

“We are very pleased to have Antti in our team and very satisfied that Antti and Jouko will have some time together before Jouko leaves for retirement at year end 2010” says Håkan Simonsen, Chairman of the board in Oy Lautex AB.
